

We need help with _____	Activities
Basic Yearbook Vocabulary	Yearbook Basics – Scavenger Hunt
Introducing our staff to the people and places they need to know	People you need to know - Amazing Race (Send students in groups to find people and places around the building. Make sure they take a selfie with each person and find out a fun fact from each person, as well. When they return, have them compile what they've learned and have them create a slide or poster for their team, as well.)
Photo Basics	Photos in 5
Camera Basics	Photo Olympics
Photo Selection & Management	Upload Photo Olympics Delete bad Batch Rename Select best / Critique
Coverage - ideas	Coverage Survivor (Have everyone stand up. Throw out a topic. Go down the line and have students list a new coverage angle for that topic. If, when it's their turn, they repeat an answer or can't think of anything to say, they need to sit down. The last one standing wins.) Spread Planners Have teams work as a group to complete spread planners for the 1-11 .
Mod Ideas	50 Ways to Tell a Story staffers design a mod on computer
Headlines	123 of Headline Writing
Captions	A-B-Cs of Caption Writing Write captions for summer / first week of school spreads
Interviews	It's Not an Interview, It's a Conversation Practice interviews with coach, librarian, teacher...
Approaching people	Humans of New York (15 minute video where Brandon Stanton demonstrates and explains his process for approaching strangers.)
Design Trends	Design Trends Inspiration Translation
Critiquing Design	Teach the mnemonic "USED" - Unify Separate Emphasize Direct Use the vocab to critique spreads
Explaining what a theme should do	What a Concept